Finding Our Way

*Like old wallpaper
College yearbooks quietly confess
All that we cannot. And when we finally ask them to recollect,
It is bittersweet realizing
How wonderful, yet forever past.
And no matter how much we feel,
We can never go back, only remember a little.*

*Like a dictionary
College yearbooks finally define
Who the seniors were, matching faces to names.
We can finally make some sense of old gossip
While sitting in traffic on some afternoon.*

*What we choose to remember
Comes not from photographs but discoveries -
Reflecting our identities off friends and professors,
Beginning to find our voices in all places.*

*We have come to know ourselves
Better than we did when we started.
However, this process has no ending,
Claiming diplomas and taking that last test.
We find our way constantly
From conversations unanticipated.*

*When we leave each other at year's end,
We realize that we did create a community -
A personality at Wheaton, never to be the same,
Affecting each other's lives, never noticing.*

Alternative Spring Break

Since the founding of Wheaton's Alternative Spring Break Program four years ago, students have ventured off to six areas of the country with construction boots in hand for a week of service working with Habitat for Humanity. This year two groups worked diligently to fundraise and plan for two different trips. Nine students made the thirty-two hour van journey to Homestead, Florida to work with Hurricane Andrew victims. The rolling hills of Washington County, Pennsylvania were the second destination of this year's participants.

Team work, labor and fun were the themes of the two trips as was community responsibility and the ethic of service. Wheaton will continue this tradition next year traveling to new communities through continued dedication and hard work.

Amnesty International

Amnesty works towards the release and freedom of prisoners of conscience throughout the world. Amnesty advocates for those who have used non-violent means to protest against human rights violations.

College Democrats

Anthropology Club

The Anthropology club came alive this year. Led by co-chairs, Daniella Dana and Gillian McMahon, the club took an active role in many exciting events. Combining efforts with Amnesty International, a visual display was created in conjunction with a letter signing campaign focused on Africa. In November, eight majors travelled to Atlanta, Georgia for the American Anthropological Association's Annual Conference, the topic for 1994 was Human Rights. The trip proved to be exciting and stimulating.

The highlight of the second semester was the African drumming presentation by Nurudafuna Pula Abna. This well attended event combined music, history and fun. The Anthropology club is enthusiastic in its pursuit to explore cultural differences and intellectual dilemmas, while sharing them with others and the Wheaton community.

College Republicans

Dykeons

Education Council

The Educational Council is a branch of the Student Government Association. It is dedicated towards enhancing the intellectual environment at Wheaton. The Council represents students' concerns regarding academic issues and provides educational programming to the community. This year the Council sponsored numerous events. Additionally, the Council fought for and achieved student representation on the Committee on Admissions and Academic Standing, as well as on other institutional committees.

Equestrian Team

The Wheaton Equestrian Team is a co-educational campus club and a member of the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association. The team participates in horse shows sponsored by IHSA throughout the school season. In addition to the shows, the members of the team also take part in weekly riding lessons from a certified dressage and cross-country instructor.

French Club

Intercultural Board

The Intercultural Board is the branch of the Student Government Association that serves as a forum for students to voice their concerns on issues of multi-culturalism. Meetings are held every two weeks and all members of the Wheaton community are welcome to join the Intercultural Board.

Kindred Spirits

Kindred Spirits, Wheaton's horror, sci-fi, and fantasy club, has made the transition this year from watching movies on a regular basis to making them. The first film was such a success, Lee Mandel (who appears in the film herself) suggested that it be entered in the Academic Festival. The second production is an extremely ambitious "Star Wars" parody. Kindred Spirits has no lack of scripts for future productions, though the budget is lower than "Ed Wood's", and will hopefully continue to produce films of equivalent character.

Niké

The Niké staff works hard to produce a top quality yearbook, that all students can enjoy. Each year's goal is to improve upon the last. We work closely with all groups on campus to try and achieve this goal. Our hope is that each Wheaton student will be reminded of friends and fond memories within the pages of our yearbook.

Outing Club

Programming Council

The 1994-1995 Programming Council has provided a "rockin" good time for the Wheaton community this year. Particularly well attended and accomplished events included- The smooth southern rock of the Grapes, a non-alcoholic tribute to the 70's dance party, a reggae Winter Weekend featuring Skadanks, an open mike/coffee house in the cafe complete with musicians, jugglers and plenty of spectators, and of course a Spring Weekend with The Samples that Wheaton College will soon not forget. And so there are as a council to provide for the "social, cultural and recreational activities" on campus the Programming Council did just that and also added to it a diverse range of interests and most importantly a good time to be had by everyone.

Russian Club

Song of the Bard

Song of the Bard is an alternative literary magazine that provides a wider range of writing opportunities on campus.

Students Against Homophobia

Students Against Homophobia is a group that was started in 1992 by students who wanted to show their support of gay rights. S.A.H. is dedicated to creating a safe campus for all students, regardless of sexual orientation, through education about homophobic issues.

Spanish Club

The Spanish club was started in 1992 by Alex Tsouvalas and Erica Joaquim. They felt that a club was needed where students of Spanish could get together and talk about their classes or experiences with Spanish cultures. The Spanish club is here to create an environment appreciative of Spanish culture. Anyone who wants to learn more about different Spanish cultures and just wants to have fun and make friends can join. Every year the Spanish club celebrates "El Día de los Muertos" (Day of the Dead) in accordance to a Mexican tradition of paying respect to their dead loved ones. The club also shows movies to the general public; two movies shown this year are "Like Water for Chocolate" and "House of Spirits".

Wheaton Asian Student Association

The Wheaton Asian Student Association is unique because of its diversity. WASA represents Asians and Asian Americans from various ethnicities including: Korean, Japanese, Chinese, Malaysian, Indonesian, Mongolian and Thai. Members share and explore their culture and identity as Asians.

Wheaton Christian Fellowship

The Wheaton Christian Fellowship is a group of students who are interested in learning more about God and growing in their relationship with Him and each other. This year the Fellowship looked at the gospels of Luke and Mark in weekly Bible studies to learn what it means to follow Jesus and love people. In addition to prayer meeting and social events, the Fellowship went on retreats dealing with relationships, racial reconciliation, loving and serving people and ended with a weeklong leadership training camp.

By Christine K.Z. Koh
Editor-in-Chief

To state that the Wire has undergone a few minor changes over the past few years would be a vast understatement. When I entered Wheaton in 1991, the Wire published bi-weekly...maybe. The three co-editors were a bit skewed—pleasant, but skewed. For example, one editor assigned me to interview a professor about some major, earth-shattering research in which he had engaged that summer. Excited about covering the story (my first assignment of the semester), I trotted over to interview the professor and he said, "You must have some mistake. I spent the summer in Maine... Where did you get that tip?" A rather disheartening and ego-flattening experience, I would say. And it was that sort of organization which really made the paper...well, interesting.

Happily, however, the Wire has made great strides since those less-than-proud days of journalism. After the three co-editors left, we stepped up to a weekly publication schedule, incorporated new sections into the paper, and have increased both the size of our staff and the variety of stories we cover. Seeing these changes develop and unfold in front of me has been an exciting and incredible transition.

Three years as editor of the Wire has provided me with abounding insight concerning social reactions, interactions and communication. Although a part of me is sad to leave a post which nearly has developed into part of my metabolism, I am excited to see, now from the periphery, the new developments and innovations which will occur after I graduate.

Zen Club

This year the Wheaton College Zen Club had enthusiastic turnouts, which included several new visiting teachers from the affiliated Providence Zen Center. In the spring, morning meditation sessions were added to the regular schedule of weekly evening meetings. In addition, several students attended ceremonies for Buddha's Enlightenment Day and Buddha's Birthday in December and April, respectively, as well as public dharma lectures given by Zen Master Seung Suh, founder of the Kwan Um community.

The Sexual Awareness House focuses on contemporary issues involving sexuality. Through discussions, readings and work with other organizations both on and off campus, the sex house works to uncover and examine issues that are paramount to life in the 90's. Issues such as sexual health, STDs and lifestyles have been uncovered and brought to the campus for contemplation.

Men's Cross Country

The small veteran Men's Cross Country Team showed their excellence by seeing each member finish every race and placing in the top half of the field in all meets. This season saw the men's team finish ninth at Williams, fourth at Rhode Island College, third at Stonehill, win the Abbey McClosky Meet at Wheaton and place 16th at the NCAA Division 3 New England Regionals. Even with the loss of three seniors, the team will continue a strong showing next season.

Women's Cross Country

The 1994 Women's Cross Country Team had an extraordinary season. The five freshmen, two sophomores and three juniors faired strongly in several important meets. Highlights included a seventh place finish at the Bryant Invitational, winning the B Varsity Race at Williams, placing third at the Babson Invitational, winning the Stonehill Invitational and placing 15th at the NCAA Division 3 New England Regionals. Most of the young team will return next year for another winning season.

Field Hockey

Women's Soccer

Men's Soccer

This year, the men's soccer team had a record of 14-4-3. Not only was the season record impressive, but they also set many others such as: most wins, fewest losses, first ever ECAC tournament wins (2), first seed in the ECAC tournament and tournament runner-ups. Co-captain, Bill Brady ('95) made the All New England first team. Oscar Medina ('97) was named MVP in the Drew Invitational Soccer Tournament. Pete Reed ('98) and Matt Chimento ('98) led the team in scoring, with eight goals each.

Women's Tennis

The Wheaton women's tennis team finished the season with a 14-4 record. The team was strong all season long, with two ITA Eastern Regional rankings: Sarah Evans ('97) attaining the #9 singles slot and the doubles team of Sarah Evans and Beth Cady ('96) being ranked at the #10 position.

Volleyball

Boston Ballroom Bash

AutumnFest

On the weekend of October 21-23, alumnae and parents converged on campus, and joined current students in celebrating academic accomplishments and Wheaton's rich history. It was a wonderful time to catch up with old friends who have left the confines of our campus and to meet new members of our community.

Convocation

Every September, Convocation marks the beginning of the academic year. It is a special moment in honor of the seniors' last year, the freshmen's first year and all of those times in between.

SSS Week

Secret Sophomore Sibling Week has been a tradition on the Wheaton campus for a long time. It is a time to make the freshmen feel "welcome" into the community. It also a lot of fun for the sophomores, for whom the vivid memories of last year are still strong.

Welfare Debate

Sometimes Wheaton students want to voice their concerns about important issues. Last fall, students debated in an open forum both the liberal and conservative perspectives on the subject of the current welfare system and potential reform.

Women's Basketball

The 1994-95 women's basketball team finished the year with a 24-5 record. The team won the New England Women's Eight title for the second consecutive year and was selected to compete in the NCAA Tournament, advancing to the "Sweet Sixteen". The team was paced by seniors Allyson Aube, Dee Robichaud and Christine Whelan. All three seniors were named All New 8, All New England and all ECAC. Also, Aube was named New 8 Player of the Year.

Men's Basketball

The 1994-95 men's basketball team had a very good season, ending it with a 13-11 record. The season was highlighted by four great wins. Early on, the team beat Assumption College and Salem State College. During their Winter Break trip to California, they beat University of California at San Diego. Also, the win against Skidmore College was glorious. The second half of the season saw the Lyons win seven of the last eleven games.

Swimming

The 1994-95 season was Wheaton's fourth intercollegiate swimming and diving season. The final record was 4-7-1. The year's highlights included taking seven women and six men to the New England Championships. The Lyons performed very well in the Championships, breaking several team records and achieving new personal bests.

This year's sunchronized swimming team was the largest in recent years with 16 swimmers. We had a very successful season that ended with the Collegiate Nationals held at Stanford University over spring break. The team performed very well and this helped place teh Lyons in a final ranking of number eight. All of this combined with this season being the first season as a varsity sport, made for an exciting year.

Winter

Winter transforms the Wheaton campus into a whole other world. Unlike the leafy beauty of the fall and spring, winter brings snow and lots of cold weather activities. Sledding, ice skating, snow-ball fights and hockey on Peacock pond are common and lots of fun. This is why winter at Wheaton could be called an activity in itself.

Men's Lacrosse

This year's men's lacrosse team tied for the best all-time record of 8-6. The leading scorers were Adam Norris ('97), Jon Chapman ('97) and Jason Lamontagne('95), and goalie Jeff Burke was in the top ten of all division III lacrosse teams in the country. The leadership the six graduating seniors exhibited will be missed.

Women's Lacrosse

Softball

The softball team was led by senior captains Jade Rutanen, Kristin Hardy and Larcie Hunter to an extremely successful 1995 season. A record of 30-7 was highlighted by their third New 8 Championships in four years and their second straight trip to the ECAC tournament. The team's success can be attributed its youth, speed and increased cohesiveness.

Men's Tennis

The men's tennis team finished its dual match schedule with a respectable 10-3 record. During the second half of the season saw teh Lyons lose only one match. This is an incredible improvement from a few years ago. The doubles team of Kord Schwarz ('97) and Brian Ylisto ('97) were ranked in the top twenty of teh ITA Division III rankings fro the East. This was a first in Wheaton men's tennis history. The season ended with a strong showing at the New England Men's Tennis Championship.

Head of the Peacock

Those few willing to risk falling into Peacock Pond are either brave or stupid. Either way, the Head of the Peacock is a lot of fun to watch... from a safe, dry distance.

Academic Festival

The Academic Festival began a few years ago as a chance to recognize and honor work done by Wheaton students in all fields. It has since blossomed and now features poster presentations, talks, computer demonstrations, dramatic and music performances, and panel discussions. This year's festival included nearly every topic, from Victorian writers to educational uses of the Internet.

The Dining Experience

When we arrived on campus in the fall, we found the newly promised dining halls and meal plans. Not only were the Chases spruced up to a more aesthetic level, but many believed that the food was better. Whether you ate at Emerson, Chase Square or Chase Round, the dining hall was central.

I want to take a minute to run my mouth - um, computer off. You see, on May 20, 1995 I was an unemployed college graduate. There were lots of us, so I didn't feel so alone. What I did realize, though, was that I really did like Wheaton. Yes, I would probably even miss it, which is something I had never taken the time to consider before.

Now that I have safely been a month away from Wheaton, I do miss it. I know that I am better off now than I was four years ago: partly because of the education, but mostly because of the friends that I made and lost. I want to thank many people for making my four years the best they could have been: Tomi, Andy & Mike (even though you abandoned me for UMASS-Amherst), Dave, Emile, Seon Joo, Daniella, Opie, Jon, Anita, Profs. Boroviak, Collins, Helmrieck, Kola, Russell, Weil & Wegmann, Linda (Brian and the rest of the library staff), and anyone else whom I may have forgotten. I want to say "thanks" to the yearbook staff: Liz, May, Lynn, Christine, Meredith (goodluck with next year's book) and most of all (for everything and more) Suzanne. You have inspired me and been my best friend... that is something that can never be fully repaid, but I will keep trying.

So, this is what it feels like to write a Wire column.
